Vesper Service at Broadway Congregational Church. The vesper services at the Broadway Congregational church will be resumed Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. A new order has been repared and at this first service the choir will sing the anthems:

"New the day is over," T
"I heard the voice of Jesus say,"

Macdougall Mr. Lester will give a short organ recital before the service, commencing at 4.45, playing the following num-

Prelude in C sharp minor, Rachmanioff Albumblatt, Kirchner "In the Garden," from Rustic Wedding

Symphony, Another Big Show at the Auditorium. The show at the Auditorium for this week sets a record for big bills in the history of Norwich vaudeville, there being 25 people on the bill. The management does not intend to stop at this, however as they have several surprises in store that will surpass all previous efforts. The feature act for next week is the Barbeau band, an act containing ten people. This extremely versatile troupe give practically a whole show in themselves. Opening their act with a full brass band number, they in turn introduce, singing dancing, lariat spin-ning, and clever instrumental work. What is known to be the most pretentious team of sister artists in the business will be here for the first three days of the week. The Rosalie Sisdays of the week. The Rosalle Sis-ters are the ladies above mentioned, and they no doubt will reproduce here their successes of other cities.

Another smart act is Elmer and De-Witt, who intersperse clever singing and dancing with some nifty comed; juggling.
The Auditorium is the only house in this part of the state that is showing this part of the state that is showing the celebrated "Imp" and "Bison" pic-tures. If you see the "Bison" trade-mark you may satisfy yourself that it is the best western subject on the will be a free concert daily by the Barbeau band, at 2.30 and 7 p. m. in front of the Auditorium.

AT POLI'S.

Commencing next Monday, the evening performance at Poll's will start at 7.45 instead of 8.1%, as heretofore. The show will not be cut and will run just as long, the only thing will be that the performance will terminate at an earlier hour, thereby allowing the restarts from the performance of the performance will terminate at an earlier hour, thereby allowing the restarts from the performance will terminate at an earlier hour. the patrons from out of town districts to get their last cars and not have to leave before the show is over. On Fri-day night of next week the manage-ment will offer for the first time in Norwich this season a vandeville contestants' night. These vandeville aspirants will appear directly after the regular performance. Headlining the bill at Poli's for the first three days next week is Clara Belle Jerome & Co. who are seen in a musical come. next week is Clara Belle Jerome & Co., who are seen in a musical comedy entitled "Joyland." This is one of the most costly and largest acts in vaudeville and is the largest act that has ever played in this city. This act was written and staged by thus Sohlke and uses only their own interpolated numbers. Another act that will appear if an automobile does not run. pear if an automobile does not run over him before he reaches the thea-ter, is H. T. McConnell & Co. He presents a novel act entitled The Pres-ident of the 13th Club. A dancing act that will meet with instant appro-val is DeHaven & Sidney, who are two of the best hard-shoe dancers in vaudeville. Helen Royton & Co. are seen in a comedy sketch entitled Irish Tessie, that is a scream from start to finish. A blackface comedian that has a perint style of putting over songs and funny talk is Harry Holman The above bill is a more expensive show by many times than has ever been seen in this city.

AN IMPORTANT FALL OPENING.

Features of Notable Display by the Porteous & Mitchell Company.

The annual full opening of the Porwill continue throughout the week following.

There have been several preliminary openings, but today will occur the complete fall opening in every department of the store. This annual fall opening event has come to be regarded as a feature of considerable importance to all the people of New London and Windham constitution. don and Windham counties, as it upon this occasion that the public given a first view of the new styles in fall merchandise. Not only has there been arranged an attractive display of new merchandise, but to add to the interest of the occasion a num-ber of special offerings have been provided, which represent opportunities for economy that are worthy of consideration consideration.

Visitors to the store today and next week will be surprised and delighted at the extent and variety of the display. Starting at the top or third floor they will find a broad and satisfying exhibit of floor coverings and drapery materials, everything for beautifying and adorning the home.

Next comes the second floor, where will be found an expensive display of apparel for women, children and in-apparel for women, children and infants such as women's tailored suits, stylish coats, rich furs, dainty muslin underwear, all the best known makes of corsets, shoes for women and children and an unusually attractive display of infants. play of infants' wear, including coats, oresses, caps, etc. The main floor presents the greatest variety of merchandise as it is on this floor are located the boys' clothing department, the department for silks and woolen dress goods with its splendid display of new fabrics and latest fall colorings, the "Peerless" pattern department, and the departments devoted to the sale of accessories to the toilet.

In the annex adjoining the main cessories to the toilet.

In the annex adjoining the main floor is the millinery department—a most fascinating spot for women during these early fall days.

Passing to the basement department we find a complete showing of articles of household utility. The domestic department, which is located in the basement, is one of the largest and most important in Connecticut and most important in Connecticut, and includes every variety of the better quality up to the finest, in blankets, fiannels, sheetings, muslines, pillow cases, sheets, quilts, comfortables, ta-ble linens and towelings. Adjoining is the wash goods department, another important department here. On the same floor is located the house-furnishing department with its hunuseful articles for house

The men as well as the women have an interest in this fall opening, as this enterprising company has a splendidly equipped men's department with a separate entrance. The display of men's wear for fall is varied and attractive. Among the most attractive features of the fail opening event are the window displays which were especially designed for the occasion by the store decerator. Autumn shades prevail and the design carried out throughout the entire front is very pleasing and a teractive.

CURES PIMPLES QUICKLY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past The Lee & Osgood Co, have done the biggest business they ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Norwich. It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne scaly sealp complexion blemishes, itching feet, ples, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found any form of wound or disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not heal, and its action is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start. In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits The Lee & Osgood Co, will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25c; larger size 50c. And remember that if you don not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan. it on this plan.

A Generous and Charitable Wish.

"I wish all might know of the benefit I received from Foley's Kidney Remedy," says I. N. Regan, Farmer, Mo. His kidneys and bladder gave him so much pain, misery and annoy-ance he could not work, nor sleep. He says Foley's Kidney Remedy complete-ly cured him. Lee & Osgood Co.

My head with many a thought was And many a dream as I never told, My heart would lift at a wee bird's or at seein' a whin bush crowned with gold.

And always I'd look back at the say.

Or the turn o' the road shut out the sight.

Of the long waves curlin' into the bay.

An' breakin' in foam where the sands is white.

I was married young on a dacent man.
As many would call a prudent choice.
But he never could hear how the river Singin' a song in a changin' voice;
Nor thought to see on the bay's blue wather
A ship with yellow sails unfurled,
Bearin' away a King's young daughter
Over the brim of the heavin' world.

The way seems weary now to my feet.
'An' miles bes many, an' dreams bes few:
The evenin' air's not near so sweet,
The birds don't sing as they used to An' I'm that tired at the top o' the hill.

That I haven't the heart to turn at To watch the curlin' breakers fill
The wee round bay at Cushendall.

SHE'S GROWING UP. She has grown and grown from her It's a wonder to waten how a baby It's a wonder to watch how a baby grows—
From her romping, climbing and tomboy days
To a sim sedateness and ribbon bows!
Yes, sir! to bows on her golden hair.
And the tallness caused by a lengthened skirt;
I can't for a moment tell why I care, But I do—somehow I am grieved and hurt. hurt. She sauntered in when I came from Last night-with never a word to And came and stood where I'd sat me down And looked in my eyes in the strang-And waited there till her dad should
